To help you better understand Federal Motor Carrier Regulations, Acrisure Truck Group offers a four-course video training series ideal for transportation professionals who seek working knowledge of the fundamental transport regulations that apply to motor carriers. The DOT regulations overview course consists of:

- Short, informational segments you can access anytime, anywhere
- A quiz following each video to test your knowledge
- A certificate recognizing your successful completion of the program

DOT REGULATIONS: A FOUR-PART OVERVIEW

Part I: DOT Registration/General Compliance

Learn the basics of compliance, operating authority guidelines, a carrier's financial and insurance responsibilities, and the importance of the New Entrant Program.

Part II: Driver Qualifications

Learn about the physical and medical requirements for drivers as well as programs, road tests, background checks, and forms and documents to keep on file.

Part III: Hours of Service

Driver Hours of Service rules can be complicated. Get an understanding of how long a driver is allowed to drive, required rest breaks, limitations, and a clearer picture of personal conveyance time.

Part IV: Vehicle Maintenance and Inspection

Learn about DOT periodic inspections and red flags, required repairs and maintenance, and necessary records to keep on file.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY to expand your regulation knowledge and ensure you're taking the proper steps to uphold compliance and safety.

Acrisure's risk resources team offers on-demand, virtual and live training tools to help you elevate your organization's performance and profitability and gain more control over the cost of your insurance and risk.
