NO COST TRANSPORTATION SAFETY TRAINING

WHO SAYS TRAINING and resources have to be expensive? With a variety of transportation safety and hazmat training modules, the federal government websites below provide you and your team with easily accessible, free, and pertinent information. Please check with your state and local entities in your area for additional information that is pertinent to your operations.

DOT-PHMSA HAZMAT OUTREACH & TRAINING

★ HIGHLY RECOMMENDED FOR HAZMAT CARRIERS.

The Pipeline Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA) Outreach and Training branch is responsible for enhancing regulatory compliance through the development of training materials that enable you to more easily understand and comply with training requirements related to hazardous materials transportation. PHMSA provides you with online training resources to ensure you know how to transport hazardous materials in compliance with federal laws and regulations. The hazardous materials courses are incredibly effective and provide you with your legally required completion certificate.
